Higher Education in the Asia-Pacific

Strategic Responses to Globalization

This survey provides unprecedented scope and detail of analysis on higher education in the Asia-Pacific region. In this era of global integration, convergence and comparison, the balance of power in worldwide higher education is shifting. In less than two decades the Asia-Pacific region has come to possess the largest and fastest growing higher education sector on Earth. In China, Hong Kong, Taiwan, Korea and Singapore, 'world-class' universities are emerging at breakneck pace, fostered by modernizing governments that see knowledge and skills as key to a future shaped equally by East and West.

But not all Asia-Pacific countries are on this path, not all reforms are effective, and there are marked differences between nations in levels of resources, educational participation, research, state controls and academic freedom. This volume, written by authors from a dozen different countries, focuses successively on the Asia-Pacific as a whole, the strategies of individual universities, and national policies and strategies in response to the global challenge.

"A critical topic. The editors are as well versed as anyone on the issues and have assembled a superb group of authors to analyze the challenges that confront countries and universities in the age of globalization"

Prof. William G. Tierney,
Director, Center for Higher Education Policy Analysis,

"Very timely. Key to understanding the old and new powers in the Asia-Pacific and makes a major contribution in identifying the factors of success in higher education"

Prof. Jürgen Enders,
Director, Center for Higher Education Policy Studies,
University of Twente, Netherlands
