

Incorporating intercultural elements into curricula

A project in progress

Dr. Samantha Marangell

Melbourne Centre for the Study of Higher Education

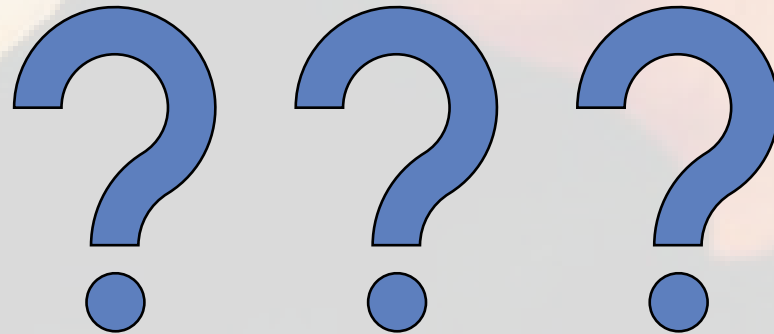

A Project in Progress

Acknowledging Culture

Incorporating Culture

Incorporating intercultural elements into curricula

Four Key Strategies

Incorporating international or intercultural comparisons into the material

Facilitating interaction between diverse student groups

Designing subjects with international scope

Providing experiential learning experiences either within Australia or internationally.

Four Key Strategies

Incorporating international or intercultural comparisons into the material

Facilitating interaction between diverse student groups

Designing subjects with international scope

Providing experiential learning experiences either within Australia or internationally.

Four Key Strategies

Incorporating international or intercultural comparisons into the material

Facilitating interaction between diverse student groups

Designing subjects with international scope

Providing experiential learning experiences either within Australia or internationally.

Project Components

Website

Strategies

Resources

Collated
Bibliographies

Examples

A Request!

Please share examples from across the University by emailing samantha.marangell@unimelb.edu.au

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

Thank you

marangells@unimelb.edu.au

